A vulture is a scavenging bird of prey. The two types of vultures are the New World vultures, including the Californian and Andean condors, and the Old World vultures, including the birds that are seen scavenging on carcasses of dead animals on African plains. Some traditional Old World vultures (including the bearded vulture) are not closely related to the others, which is why the vultures are ...

On each page, the surveys are arranged by the total number of points available in each question, in descending order. All of the questions were transcribed from whatever Richard said when he first read the question for the face-off, on the theory that that would be the most likely time for him to read the question on the card verbatim.
