Safari is a graphical web browser developed by Apple, based on the WebKit engine. First released on January 7, 2003 with Mac OS X Panther, a mobile version has been bundled with iOS devices since the iPhone's introduction in 2007, and is the default browser on Apple devices. A Windows version was available from 2007 to 2012.

A web browser (commonly referred to as a browser) is a software application for accessing information on the World Wide Web. Each individual web page, image, and video is identified by a distinct URL, enabling browsers to retrieve and display them on the user's device.. A web browser is not the same thing as a search engine, though the two are often confused.

Choosing a Browser. Each browser has strengths and weaknesses. These can change. Both 32- and 64-bit versions are available for most current browsers (64-bit versions are generally faster and more secure).. Recommendations. I strongly recommended using Firefox as your primary browser.It is the only major independent browser that protects and respects your private information.
