For coherence theories in general, truth requires a proper fit of elements within a whole system. Very often, though, coherence is taken to imply something more than simple logical consistency; often there is a demand that the propositions in a coherent system lend mutual inferential support to each other.

This is amazing! I want to try this with one of my honors geometry units. I too have tried to flip my classroom with little satisfaction. I'd love to know more about how you go about ensuring students learn and what types of assessments you use.

Why I Gave Up Flipped Instruction - Powerful Learning Practice

At the end of the previous post I stated, "Remember that the Book of Acts describes a period when the Kingdom program with its accordant miracles and conferring of the Holy Spirit by the laying on of hands is on the wane but not yet gone, while the Age of Grace we have been discussing is still on the rise."
